FISCAL COURT FIXES LEVY AT 50 CENTS

Some Bonds Paid and Numerous Appropriations Made.

MORE NEW BRIDGES.

Road Graders to be Put to Work by Supervisor
D. T. Cranor.

Fiscal Court adjourned Saturday after a busy session of a week. The county levy for the year was fixed at 50 cents, seven cents for the purpose of paying semi-annual interest on county railroad bonds and forty-three cents for general purposes.

Small-plot claims amounting to about $8,000 were allowed. The sum of $1,068 was appropriated in payment of five county railroad funding bonds, bearing date of July 1, 1897. These bonds were destroyed.

Dr. John D. Clardy was allowed $72 to represent him for money advanced for the extension of the Newstead turnpike road.

It was ordered that $334.30 be paid to the officers of the regular registration and election for the year 1094.

The sum of $1,668 was appropriated and ordered paid to the Forbes Manufacturing Co. for installing a heating plant in the new jail.

An appropriation of $800, or so much as may be necessary, to build a forty-foot steel bridge over Thompson's Creek, or Hickory Withe road, was made. The sum of $2,000 was also appropriated for the construction of a forty-foot span steel bridge over Montgomery Creek, on Dickenson Mill road.

W. B. Long and Madison Kelly (white), and Ben Garrett (col.) were released from the payment of poll tax.

It was the judgment of the Court that in working the roads of the county during the year 1905 road graders be employed and teams for operation be hired instead of purchased by the county. An order to this effect was made. It was further ordered that the management of road graders be left with D. T. Cranor, Road Commissioner, and that he be instructed to employ all labor necessary and to purchase one new road grader and all repairs for the old graders.

Remain in Jail, Pending Appeal.

JURY COMMISSIONERS.

Circuit Court Adjourns After a Session of Six Weeks.

The Case of Ed Moseley, the negro boy who turned State's evidence in the Pembroke murder case, was not disposed of at this term of court and Moseley is still out on a $1,000 bond.

Five of the seven men sentenced to life in prison were taken to Edenville Sunray. Dave Cunningham, who was given one year on a charge of grand larceny, appealed his case and sentence was suspended. He and Finch, the latter one of the Pembroke negroes convicted of murder, will remain in jail until the court of appeals acts upon their cases.

The verdict in the suit of H. W. Deason against the L. & N., in which plaintiff was awarded $2,000 damages, was set aside and a new trial granted.

In the suit of John Brooks, guard, against the L. & N. C. railroad a new hearing was also granted.

The attachment against the property of H. H. Tilly, issued on a plea made by his wife in a petition for divorce, was dismissed. The court ruled that the defendant should pay $25 each month for the maintenance of his wife and their two children until the further order of the court in regard to the matter.

Dr. John P. Bell, Edgar Robinson and Dr. J. A. Southall are the jury commissioners for this year, recently appointed. They met last week and performed their duty by filling the wheel according to law.

Myrtle Lovell was granted a divorce from her husband, Harry Leavel. Court adjourned Saturday, same date.

"CRAPPED" OUT.

Joe Carter, col., charged with gaming, was dismissed.

UNION IN SIGHT

Two Branches of Presbyterian Church to Combine.

QUITE A BLOW

And Some Small Damage
Done in the City.

Members of the Cumberland Presbyterians in this city, who favor the union of church with the Northern Presbyterian church, have received gratifying news from the presbyteries in Indiana. Fifty-two of the presbyteries in the church have voted for the union and forty-three have voted to oppose it. There remain seventeen presbyteries to hear from.

The presbyteries in Indiana met last week. They all favored the union of the churches. The action of the Indiana body practically settles the question, for the remaining presbyteries are understood to favor the union - movement almost unanimously.

The question will be settled this fall at the meeting of the general assembly of the church.

The question has been on foot for about two years and has been the cause of much discussion among the members of the church.

Dr. Petrie's Sanitarium to be Exempted From Taxation Five Years.

TO WIDEN 17th STREET.

School Election Ordered For the First Saturday in May.

The City Council Friday night ordered the sale of a franchise for the construction of a sanitary sewerage system in the city. It is to be built by private capital at an estimated cost of $65,000. A proposition to build a system of the kind by public taxation was voted on and defeated last fall. The franchise will be offered for sale April 22.

The scale of charges for use of the service is as follows:

Six-room residence or less, $8 per year; seven to ten rooms, $10, eleven rooms and up, $12; business houses $15 to $30, according to floor space and number of employees; factories, department houses, flats and all other houses not mentioned above to be charged according to the size of sewer leading from them, prices of which will range from $15 for four-inch pipe to $30 for eight-inch pipe.

An ordinance was also passed authorizing the establishment of a sanitarium by Dr. C. B. Petrie, to be exempt from taxation for five years. It will cost $20,000.

Mr. H. D. Wallace offered to donate nine feet off his property to widen West Seventeenth street, if the city will move his out-buildings and build a new fence. The proposition is very liberal, as the residence property is most valuable. The matter was referred to the Street Committee.

An election was ordered for May 6 to elect two school trustees. The trustees whose terms expire are J. E. McPherson and J. T. Wall.

VERDICT STANDS

In Nortonville Man's Suit If Your Lungs Are Not Against Railroad Co.

Motion for a new trial was refused in the case of Munell Wilson, who recovered $1,000 damages against the I.C. railroad company for alleged false arrest in June, 1902. On his way from his home at Nortonville to Louisville J. D. Steele, a fellow-passenger, lost his pocket-book and suspicions of members of the train crew were aroused against Wilson and when the train reached Louisville they had him held and searched. The pocket-book was not discovered and Wilson, according to his proof, was overcome by the humiliation that he suffered a nervous breakdown and being forced to a sanitarium to recover his health.

GET A WORM

Washington, April 9.—"The tape worm is the natural enemy of the germ of consumption and the latter cannot exist when the other is present," says Consul Canada at Vera Cruz, Mexico, in a report just received from the state department. The consul states that two eminent scientists have discovered that the tape worm prevents the organism from being infected with tuberculosis bacilli, and it has been proven in the case of a consumptive affected with a tape-worm that he completely recovered his health. He established the efficacy of this remedy, the doctors injected a liquid prepared from the taenia into several consumptives which resulted in complete cure.

High Pressure Days.

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the profligately effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy. From medical knowledge, we can recommend Dr. S. Sarparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high-pressure days.

MAX MOAYON'S MARITAL WOES AIRED IN COURT

Attorney Feland's Wit Stirs Up the Sleepy Louisville Divorce Mill.

MONEY GONE TO ASHES.

What It Costs to Play Society In The Swim of Large Cities.

Louisville, Ky., April 7.—A tirade against the habits of society women is found in the answer filed to day by Max J. Moayon to the suit for divorce filed by Birdie M. Moayon. The document was written by John Feland, a lawyer of Hopkinsville, Ky., in which place his client's relatives are wealthy citizens.

The suit for divorce was filed March 17. The wife alleged abandonment and asked the custody of two children, Beatrice and Jessamine, aged 10 and 8, and slimy, suitable for a man to pay when he wins, possessed of a fortune between $60,000 and $70,000 well invested and yielding a handsome income.

The answer declares that the plaintiff is a society woman, and has besides a fine voice, other accomplishments, such as bridge, chess, poker playing, and an entrance into such society that the children are never allowed to interfere with her musical or social engagements.

Was Worth It Once.

Moayon denies that he abandoned his wife, and says that last autumn he was received in the relation of husband while she was visiting the home of her uncle, Alex Meyer, in Louisville. He denies that he is worth $60,000, although he was once worth that amount.

To gratify her every whim and caprice, Moayon says, he began to spend his fortune for his wife just as soon as he came into possession of his property. He does not spare himself and admits:

"I had a mania for the races and other forms of gambling and indulged in the same to an extent greater than was good, morally or financially."

Proceeding, the answer says: "I was indulgent to the plaintiff and endeavored in every way to gratify her every wish. The suggestion of a diamond, a carriage, a piece of cut glass or bric-a-brac always met with quick delivery on my part."

When I first came into my inheritance I thought it would never give out, and, having money to burn, proceeded to burn it. My wife aided to burn it."

The couple were married in 1894. It is alleged that in 1900 the wife left Hopkinsville and came to Louisville with her belongings and children. He began negotiations at once for a reconciliation, and consented to place in trust one third of his estate for his children, but under the agreement she had the use of its income. His wife then returned.

A Second Honeymoon.

Moayon states that on December 6 he and his wife left on their second honeymoon for Hot Springs, Ark., and that the trip was the beginning of another round of prodigality on the part of both. They concluded that Louisville was not big enough for them so they had a way to Cincinnati, where they established themselves in a suite of rooms at the Palace Hotel.

After tiring of a "butterfly" existence, Moayon says, he and his wife concluded to keep house. They leased a mansion on Walnut Hills and began to furnish it. The court is advised to judge their expenditures by the single instance of a rug worth $200. Moayon states that in furnishing the house it was decided that the plaintiff's "dear mother," Mrs. Augustus Meyer, should come and help them select things, and that when she finished her work as purchasing agent the Moayon mansion on Walnut Hills was a dream. After a short time, however, it is alleged, Mrs. Moayon tired of such entertainment as Cincinnati could afford and determined to move on to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Atlantic City, Norfolk and other sun-

BABY'S FACE MASS OF SORES

Look as if They Would Drop Off — Baby Entirely Covered with Humor — Three Doctors Could Not Cure — Child Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. George J. Steele, of 701 Columbia St., Akron, Ohio, writes the following letter concerning a distressing skin disease of covering, disfiguring skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed. "I feel compelled to pass on to you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we had everything a medical man could do, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was covered with sores, and little by little was eaten away. Her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and for 12 days I had half of the case of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and hands were as smooth as a baby's. I would not have paid it more if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it costs us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicines without any benefit, whatever."

SLEEP FOR BABIES

Rest for Mothers.

mer resorts. Continuing, the defendant says:

If I attempt to give to the court any detailed account of the third excursion, and how I did everything in my power to pander to the inordinate ambitions and appetites of my wife, to say nothing of the diamonds she demanded for her personal adornment, the recital of the same would become tiresome and satiate this court ad nauseum."

During these days it was the practice, says the defendant, to sell property whenever money was needed. The result was, it is declared, that the property all went, and that Moayon now holds only two small pieces, from which he derives an income of $15 a month.

FIFTY CENTS

In some conditions the gain from the use of Scott's Emulsion is very rapid. For this reason we put up a fifty-cent size, which is enough for an ordinary cough or cold or useful as a trial for babies and children. In other conditions the gain is slower — health cannot be built up in a day. In such cases Scott's Emulsion must be taken as nourishment; a food rather than a medicine. It's a food for tired and weak digestions.

KIRBY RECOVERING.

Shot Through Head, But Will Get Well.

The condition of Ward Kirby, who was shot by Isaiah Dunning, at Mannington, ten days ago, is reported much improved and the chances are now in favor of his recovery. Kirby was shot just under the eye and the ball passed through his head and came out between his shoulder blades. The wound, it was thought at the time of the shooting, would prove fatal. Dunning is under bond for his appearance to answer any indictment that might be found against him. He claims self-defense.

Frankfort, Ky., April 8.—By a decision of the Mason circuit court and the court of appeals the $10,000 bond of the American Book Company deposited with the superintendent of public instruction is forfeited, and the company having refused to give a new bond for its old contracts, Superintendent of Instruction Fuqua has issued an order against its books and declares its contracts void. TOWN LAW

Is in Danger of Expulsion From Paducah.

Paducah, April 10.—An ordinance forbidding the cow trespassing upon the streets of the city will be brought in at the next meeting of the board of aldermen and will pass the aldermen by a solid front, as all voted for the ordinance to be presented at the next meeting.

It is also believed that the council will pass the much needed ordinance, as the main friend of the cow who assisted in the defeat of the ordinance heretofore is no longer a city father.

Major Yeiser stated that he will sign the cow ordinance if it passes both boards, providing the ordinance is reasonable.
